Case No: 08-2012
The Honorable Robert T. Dawson
District Judge

STIPULATION REGARDING DISCOVERY OF EXPERT
WITNESSES

Plaintiffs and Defendants, through their respective counsel of record, hereby stipulate to the following regarding the scope of discovery concerning expert witnesses in this matter:

Notwithstanding the expert disclosure and discovery provisions of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 16 and 26, the parties agree that discovery relating to expert witnesses and disclosures of expert witnesses shall not extend to any discovery concerning:

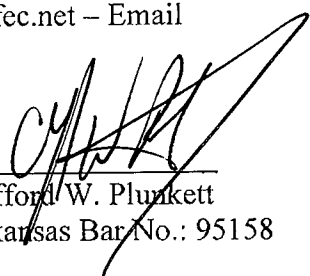

- a. Drafts, notes, or prior abandoned work (i.e., documents, data or information not being sponsored or relied upon by the expert);
- b. Communications to or from or in the presence of an attorney for the party or parties expecting to call or rely on the person as an expert witness, unless the expert is relying upon the content of such communication; or
- c. Communications to or from the expert's staff, unless the expert is relying upon the content of such communication.

IT IS SO STIPULATED.

Respectfully submitted,
